

Thank you for purchasing TreeClix and downloading this content kit.

We can imagine that you are eager to tell your customers that you are installing TreeClix, but are not so sure where to start. With this content kit, you'll have bite-sized text that you can integrate into your website in one fell swoop, complete with photos.

We would appreciate you sharing this information. On to a more professional business and more importantly: on to pain-free horses.

Kind regards,

Jolanda van der Leeden
Founder of TreeClix
